BIOGRAPHY

Yvonnick Prene has fast become one of the rising stars in the harmonica world. He has recorded with top Jazz artists like Scott Tixier, Lorin Cohen, Peter Bernstein and toured in the USA, Europe and Africa.

Born in France Yvonnick was already playing the harmonica professionally at the age of 17, in Parisian club scenes. He later earned a master's degree in music at the Sorbonne University in Paris, in 2011 and while still enrolled, he moved to New-York City to receive multiple full-tuition scholarships at the City College of New York, Columbia University and at The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music.

Yvonnick is a pioneering educator who has coached hundreds of harmonica players through his New York Harmonica School and Harmonica Studio. He is bandleader of the Yvonnick Prene quartet.
